EDITORIAL

December, 1990.

Christmas will soon be on us again, the shops eagerly displaying their wares and children are getting excited; have you noticed how hard they are trying to be good? I know a lot of people don't like snow but I would love to wake up on Christmas morning and look out of the window to see a blanket of soft white snow covering everything, then sitting by a nice warm fire with the family all opening presents to the ooh's and ah's and excited squeals of the children. You must agree that Christmas is a time for children with loving, giving and good will to all. Please remember to look out for anyone who needs some help over the Christmas period and all have a wonderful time.

I have moved yet again, this time to Fakenham. Please believe me when I say that I will still give my full commitment to your village magazine and everything that happens in both villages for as long as you want me.

A very happy Christmas to all and a happier New Year.

Foxley Rectory.
December, 1990.

Dear friends,

Advent and Christmas are usually the busiest times of the year and because of preparations for the latter we often overlook the former. Advent, however, shouldn't be the Cinderella; it needs to be recaptured because it is the key that unlocks our true enjoyment of Christmas. Advent has traditionally been regarded as the start of the Church's year - a time of newness and expectancy. Its purpose is to prepare us, to make us ready to welcome Christ afresh as we once again celebrate His nativity. I hope many homes in Foxley and Bawdeswell will have Advent Calendars in them. Each day of December another door is opened in the calendar and the joy of Christmas gets ever closer. Other homes may have an Advent Candle scored off into twentyfour sections - lit daily it allows its light to burn away completely by Christmas Eve, making way for the true Light of the World, our Lord Jesus Christ.

So then, Advent customs have their place and I hope in all the busy-ness of December you will help recapture them. We celebrate Advent Sunday with an Advent Carol Service on 2nd December at Foxley at 6 p.m. Do please join us as we sing "Hark the glad sound the Saviour comes". Later in the month our thoughts and our singing will turn to the familiar Carols of Christmas. I hope you will again join us, ready to enjoy Christmas to the full because we have used Advent wisely.

A very Happy and Joyous Advent and Christmas season to you all

From Grahame, Mary, Clare and Alexander Humphries.

"WATCH THE WORDS THIS CHRISTMAS"

Even without Sunday opening, there will still be some twenty shopping days to Christmas by the time this edition is in print. Yet Father Christmas has been around since October, and charity gift catalogues since the summer. It is already weeks since I saw in a newspaper an advertisement beginning: "Wouldn't Christmas be wonderful if.... you could find the perfect party dress and the ideal gifts for everyone on your list without struggling through crowds?"

Just think again of those first five words. Does it really take party dresses and shopping-by-telephone to make Christmas wonderful?

That is certainly not the message of our Christmas carols. When we sing them, as I hope you will soon be doing, we are following a tradition that goes back through many centuries. It is a tradition which is not always religious (there are carols on other subjects, as well as other seasons than Christmas) and which is alive and well and still developing. Though scholars seem to me undecided about whether the earliest carols were intended to be danced, there is little doubt that the word comes from the same root as our word 'chorus' - and the 'chorus line' in a musical are the dancers.

There are many definitions of just what a carol is, and what distinguishes it from a hymn - a distinction which I think is getting less as the years pass. But two elements of 'carols' are joy or celebration, and the fact that they are 'popular' - meant to be sung by everyone.

If the lines between hymns and carols are blurred, as are the distinctions between carols and folk songs. I have to confess that while I enjoy singing 'I saw three ships come sailing in' as a Christmas song, I prefer something with a Stronger Christian and biblical content in a Service of Worship.

But then many congregations willingly subscribe, knowingly or not, to the sentiments of Nathaniel Micklem's vesper hymn which runs:

Lord, keep us safe this night
beneath the stars and moon;
Pay thou no heed to what we say,
We only like the tune.

So I suggest you look carefully at the words of your Christmas carols this year, and see them as carrying, in a very powerful and popular way, the message that Christ as well as Christmas is wonderful, with no 'ifs' about it. And as a supreme example of words which carry such a message, examine this familiar verse from Charles Wesley, the prince of hymn writers:

Christ by highest heaven adored,
Christ the everlasting Lord,
late in time behold him come,
offspring of a Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see:
hail, the incarnate Deity,
pleased as Man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark, the herald-angels sing
glory to the new-born King.

Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace:
hail, the Sun of Righteousness.
Light and life to all he brings,
risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
born that man no more may die,
born to raise the sons of earth,
born to give them second birth.

Hark the herald-angels sing
glory to the new-born King.

Bishop Timothy

BAWDESWELL PARISH ROOM COMMITTEE

On 12th November, the Committee met to consider a plan submitted by N.G. King, builders, presented by Graham Wright, supported by two architects. The plan, which would involve the development of the land by a housing association, would comprise six starter homes and was demonstrated by means of a model. The Committee considered that such a development would be of advantage to the village as well as providing funds for the building of a new hall on the recreation field. Mr Daines of Breckland Planning Department had provisionally indicated his support though there could be a query over the number of houses. Mr Wright will discuss the plans with certain Housing Associations and keep us advised.

Thanks to the efforts of Mary Farthing and her helpers, a successful marquee market was held in the marquee kindly lent for the day by Mr and Mrs Peter Pollock and £280 was raised for hall funds. The 200 Club Draw will recommence on 1st Jan when all tickets are sold.

On Saturday 22nd Dec., with the kind co-operation of George Kemp, a Childrens' Disco will be held in Foxley Village Hall from 5 - 7 p.m., admission £1.50 for children, parents free. Father Christmas will be there with a gift for all children.

On Friday 7th Dec., there will be a disco in the marquee at the Old Rectory Restaurant for older children, from 7 - 10 p.m. Details from Shirley Curtis (tel:446) or watch the notice board in the village Stores. Admission £1.

ARH.

I'M TIRED

Yes I'm tired, for several years I've been blaming it on middle age, poor blood, lack of vitamins, air pollution, saccharin, obesity, dieting, under arm odour, yellow wax build up, and another dozen maladies, that make you wonder if life is really worth living but I found out that it ain't that.

I'm tired because I am overworked.

The population of this country is 51 million, 21 million are retired. That leaves 30 million to do the work.

There are 19 million at school, that leaves 11 million to do the work.

2 million are unemployed and 4 million are employed by the Government, that leaves 5 million to do the work.

1 million are in the armed forces which leaves 4 million to do the work.

3 million are employed by the County and Borough Councils, leaving 1 million to do the work.

There are 620,000 people in hospital and 379,998 in prisons, which leaves 2 people to do the work - You and Me.....

And you're sitting reading this - no wonder I'm tired.

YOUTH CLUB NEWS

The meeting to try and start a Youth Club was a complete and utter disappointment, only one person turned up besides myself and neither of us have children, but I will not be beaten. I have had quite a few 'phone calls apologising for not turning up and all of those who have 'phoned are interested.

Please 'phone me if you are interested and I will arrange another meeting - I believe we will be too late to have Foxley Village Hall and may have to find another place.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING HELD IN BAWDESWELL SCHOOL ON MONDAY, 5th NOVEMBER, 1990, AT 7.30 p.m.

Present: Cllrs. Sparkes (Chairman), Farthing, Holmes, Eglington, Wright and Battley, the Clerk and 4 parishioners.

Minutes: The Minutes of the last meeting were taken as read, agreed and signed.

Matters Arising: There will be no meeting in December unless anything of importance arises.

Mr. D. Gurney was thanked personally for the interest-free loan to be transferred to the Recreation Centre fund in the next financial year.

Mrs. Lerski wrote to the Chairman with regard to the grazing of her goats at the Gravel Pit, Reepham Road. He suggested that the land to the rear of her property might be available for rent from the land owner concerned.

Clerk's Report: Planning -

Mr. Pollock, The Old Rectory. Non-illuminated sign. Permission refused.

Mr. Bisbey, Pine Tree Cottage, The Drift. Refurbishment of cottage. Permission granted.

Mr. Hendry, Gralen House, Reepham Road. Conversion into 3 dwellings and erection of 2. Permission granted.

Miss S. Mainwaring, Holly Cottage, Dereham Road. Standing of caravan during renovations. No observations.

Mr. Underwood, Garden Centre. Replacement of existing sales building. Permission granted.

Correspondence: Waste Recycling Ltd., have removed one bottle bank as we do not produce sufficient glass. Dereham C.A.B. thank us for the £25 donation.

Recreation Report: The Jumble Sale held in the Old Rectory marquee by kind permission of Mr. Pollock and organised by Mary Farthing raised £281 - a splendid effort.

A meeting was held at the Garage on 11th October at the request of the Garage owners, Messrs. Long, Cameron and Davison and attended by all councillors except Mr. Sparkes (away ill). Mr. Cameron intimated that Breckland thought that "the application would be approved provided that the garage undertook to carry out the housing development already approved and would buy the land owned by the Village Hall and Bowling Green trustees". Mr. Cameron confirmed that they would develop the existing garage site as soon as they had completed a move to a by-pass site. What he saw as needed was a legal agreement that they would buy the Trustees land at the same time. Later Mr. Daines, Planning Officer at

CHILDRENS NEWS SHEET

Hi,

Guess who!! yes it's me again, and as no one else seemed interested Trish asked me to do the sheet again this month, you know if some of you don't show an interest soon we will end up without a childrens sheet.

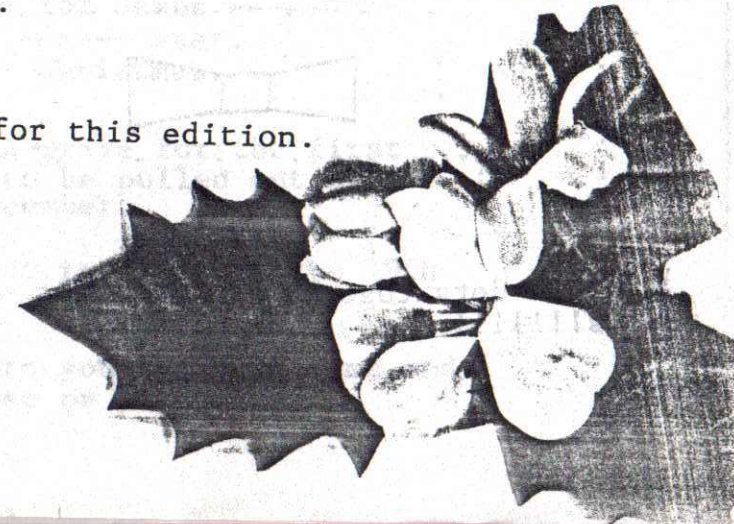

It is nearly christmas again, don't you think this year has gone fast? Have you started to think about christmas yet? I know I haven't.

We have not heard from any of you again, so please pick up your pens and write down something for the next issue, it need not be anything special, a poem, puzzle, short story or some jokes even. You can write about anything you like, perhaps some of you will tell us how your christmas holiday went.

I hope you enjoy this christmas edition, I have tried to make it interesting for all of you and really enjoyed doing it, you will find a short story, dot to dot, a christmas cross word and spot the difference, I hope you enjoy it.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all my family and friends a very happy christmas and a great new year.

Lisa Bauer
Junior Editor for this edition.

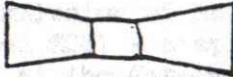

THE CHRISTMAS DONKEY

The donkey that carried Mary to Bethlehem was very proud, he knew that Mary was a special person, chosen to give birth to Jesus Christ.

When they came to the stable, the donkey stood quietly waiting for the birth.

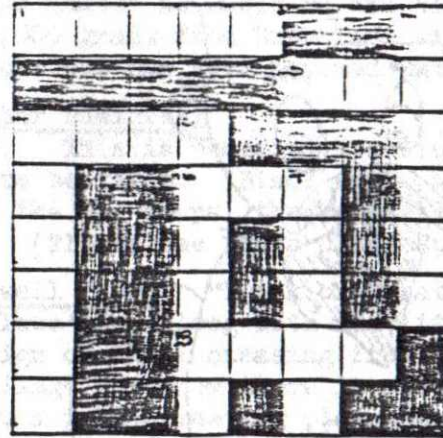

After Jesus was born crowds of people came to see him. The donkey stood in the background, the people hardly noticed him; but he did not mind because he was a very important donkey and he felt VERY PROUD AND HAPPY that he had been chosen to carry the Mother of Jesus.

SPOJ THE DIFFERENCES

Breckland D.C., said that their information was incorrect and that Highways will oppose the planning application. The Housing Association, through Graham Wright, will provide plans at the next meeting for the proposed 6 dwellings on the Village Hall/Bowling Green site. Mr. Daines believes "starter homes" as proposed are "in favour" at the moment. The £4,000 grant from Breckland expired at the end of September but has been renewed until 31st March, 1991.

Any Other Business:

Litter: This is becoming a serious problem and action needs to be taken. Black spots are Paradise Lane, areas around the bus stops, the cemetery boundary and Bawdeswell Heath. (Please see 'Help Clean Up' in this magazine).

Bawdeswell Youth: "Trick or Treat" again became a menace on Hallowe'en. Along with the litter and the vandalism it is a sign of the increasing frustration of young people in the village for whom there is absolutely nothing to do. Without a public meeting place no activities can be arranged. Trish Hide is trying to get a Youth Club started in Foxley Village Hall and should be given every encouragement. The possibility of restoring the old Village Hall was discussed but with no water or other facilities now, it seems an unlikely proposition. If demolished, a Portacabin would not be allowed on the site. The only answer seems to be to press on to provide at least a shell on the recreation ground to be added to at a later date.

Access to Recreation Ground: Fears were expressed for the safety of young children trying to reach the ground, with the need for an access off The Street. Apparently the Council has promised a footpath from Gypsy Lane to the ground eventually. The gate supplied by Mr. Elsdon has now been repaired by E. R. Eglinton, Ltd. and is ready to be positioned. Highways to be reminded regarding footpaths for village.

School Report: Miss Joice reported that Mr. Shreeve was appointed Headmaster from January, 1991. All parents have been notified. Mrs. Aitcheson, the present acting Headteacher, is ill and once again Mrs. Drury has taken over with a supply teacher filling in.

Post Box: It is requested that another box be provided for the Hall Road end of the village. Clerk will make enquiries.

There being no other business the meeting closed at 8.35 p.m.

The next meeting will be on Monday, 7th January, 1991.

RELIEF FOR RUMANIA FILM

An interesting evening for all who came. We saw inside one of the children's hospitals where relief was getting through from other countries and the women were managing very well to care for the children despite lacking many foodstuffs, equipment and medical supplies. We saw young children enjoying their sweets - their chocolate grins said it all. At a boys' home we were told that there was one fret saw for 200 boys to share. We saw the desperation of the people as they rushed to the lorries for a food parcel or clothing and how the lorry drivers had to abandon a wayside meal and drive off quickly to avoid an attack by bandits.

A further £35 was donated for the next trip which leaves on 30th November. This will take all that was left last time plus many more medical supplies and equipment and food.

Many thanks to all who came, to all who gave and to all who helped. Special thanks to Mr. G. Kemp for the loan of his TV and video player, to Foxley Village Hall committee who kindly donated the use of the hall and to Mrs. C. Hale for all her support and help.

Carole Nottage.

MID-NORFOLK MENCAP

The newly formed Bawdeswell area Social Events and Fund Raising Committee held their first Fare on the 10th November. We raised the grand total of £600.

Many thanks to all those who helped and to those who very kindly gave all sorts of items for the event. A big thank-you to Mr. & Mrs. P. Pollock and Mr. & Mrs. B. Taylor for the kind use of the marquee and for helping on the day.

Mrs. Annette Corrish.

The Jumble Sale held in Foxley Village Hall in aid of the National Canine Defence League raised £100. Edie and Jean wish to thank everyone for their donations and support.

Editor's note: I understand that Edie Potter has been very ill. We at Reeves Tale and our readers would like to wish Edie a speedy recovery.

PLAYSCHOOL NEWS

Many thanks to all for the support given to the "Spicy Games Night", which raised over £120 for Playgroup. Well done to Wendy for sorting us out into teams, many congratulations to those who won. Many thanks too, to Gilly and Bruce at the Silver Jubilee for the wonderful food. There will be another "Games Night" after Christmas, date to be decided.

Our Halloween coffee morning and nearly new sale raised over £60. Thank you to the mothers who organised it and to all those who came.

The Christmas Fair will be held on 9th December at 2.00 p.m. in Foxley Village Hall. There will be many interesting stalls including tombola, toys, gifts, cakes, lucky dip and the Father Christmas Grotto for the children. Any donations for stalls would be much appreciated. Father Christmas will travel through Bawdeswell to get to his grotto at Foxley Village Hall.

We shall be holding our Nativity on Tuesday 18th December at 11.00 a.m. Everyone is most welcome to come. Coffee and mince pies will be on sale.

The Children's Christmas Party will be held on Thursday 20th December, starting at 9.30 a.m. and finishing about 12.15 p.m. Mothers whose children do not attend Playgroup, but would like them to come should phone Jane Rates Bawdeswell 759 for details. We have traditionally had a super time and promise the same for this year.

At our last Committee meeting, Sally Slattery was duly elected as Chairman. Our grateful thanks to Janet Lees who has worked so hard on our behalf. Janet is staying on the Fund Raising Committee, so we are not completely losing someone who has proved time and time again how valuable she is. Thank you Janet for all your hard work,

VILLAGE BRIEFS

One bottle bank has been removed and the other is under threat unless used more frequently. It needs to be emptied at least once a month and holds 3000 bottles. It is not only bottles that have contained alcohol that are accepted. All glass products, jars, sauce bottles etc. in any colour glass can be put in the bank, so come on everyone, save that glass and fill that bank. It all helps to boost village funds.

It has been confirmed that the bridge on the North Elmham/Billingford road is to be closed in the New Year for major repairs. Work is expected to start in January and last for a minimum of 18 weeks. A footpath will be kept open, but all traffic will be diverted along the Fakenham Road to Guist and then turn left. There are other routes through for people who know the roads round the back of Swanton Morley, Worthing and Hoe, coming out just into North Elmham by Worthing Mill.

We would like to thank the Parish Council for their donation of £100 towards the photocopier we purchased to help you enjoy your copy of "Reeves Tale".

The Editor

All help would be very welcome for Christmas floral decoration for the Carol and Gift Service at Foxley Church on December 16th.

Foxley Church will be open on Friday 14th and Saturday 15th for the Church to be made ready for this very special Service. It would also be much appreciated if volunteers would stay and help with the clearing up after.

Late as usual but as they say - Better late than never.

Thank-you to our friends and relations for making the Blessing of our Marriage (Aug. 5th) a very happy day.
