THE RECTORY FOXLEY
December 1992

Dear friends

For me this year the message which comes out of Christmas is that marvellous "change of heart" story written by Charles Dickens in 'A Christmas Carol'. It's been brought alive to me afresh by seeing an excellent new ballet based on the story, and, if one musical interpretation isn't enough, I'm also looking forward to seeing the first stage version of the musical "Scrooge" in Birmingham shortly with Anthony Newley again playing the title part as he did in the film.

It is, of course, Scrooge who has the dramatic change of heart. He moves from being the mean miser who thinks Christmas is "humbug" to being the most generous business man in London. His encounter with the ghosts of Christmas past, present and future show him the futility of his mean and selfish lifestyle, and the unnecessary suffering he inflicts on his faithful clerk Bob Cratchett. In the Northern Ballet's score by Carl Davis many of the popular carols are built into the music. Cratchett's crippled son Tiny Tim sings "How far is it to Bethlehem? The answer is "not very far". As we approach another Christmas season I hope all our planning won't mean that we miss the turn to Bethlehem and the story of our saviour's birth. The true message of Christmas is close to each and every one of us, let's make sure we let Him fill us with his joy and truth this year.

A very Happy Christmas to you all.

Yours most sincerely
Grahame Humphries

The Editor,
The Reeves Tale.

Dear Mrs. Thompson,

May I, through the Magazine, thank everybody for their help and assistance through the last five months of Ron's illness. It was not an easy time for me and my family, but the offering and giving of lifts, practical help with the garden, enquiries as to whether I needed anything done, etc., were all very much appreciated. One hears so much nowadays about no village spirit, but this has not been my experience, as everybody has been very supportive in every way.

I did not have flowers for Ron's funeral, and have asked people for donations in lieu to be shared equally between Priscilla Bacon Lodge and North Elm Surgery, and will let you know the results at a later date.

Again, very many thanks to everybody.

Yours sincerely,

B. Earthy.

BAWDESWELL SCHOOL NEWS

Kool Kids Klub

We meet most Wednesdays after school, to do computer based design work, as an enterprise project. We have already designed flower shop notices, firework party posters, Christmas party tickets. Our charges are quite reasonable, and negotiable. Do get in touch if you'd like us to do some work to you. We are sending out a separate advertisement to everyone.

Stevenson Screen

Can anyone please help us to replace our weather station instrument box (Stevenson Screen)? We got some new instruments to replace those stolen last Christmas holiday, but the box is rotting away and is beyond repair. We have obtained a louvred door, but we need help to make the box. Do let us know if you can help. Thanks!

Don't forget!

We've still got plenty of excellent quality school teatowels on sale from the school office - a bargain at only £1.50 each - they make super gifts for family members to see your child's drawings, and as a memento of 1992 at Bawdeswell school.

Junior and intermediate toothbrushes are still available at only 20p each, too.

Sweatshirts with the school name embroidered and teeshirts with the school crest screen printed on the front can also be ordered from Mrs Howlett in the school office. Please order promptly, as there are minimum order quantities.

Police Liaison

Our new schools liaison police officer popped in to meet us on Wednesday 7th October. He is PC Jackson, who we understand actually lives in the village. We look forward to regular visits from him, and getting to know him as well as his predecessor, PC Finney.

BAWDESWELL AND FOXLEY PLAYGROUP

Playgroup is in full swing now as we begin preparing for the christmas festivities.

At the end of this term we shall be losing Lindsey, Jemma and Louis to school. We wish them well and hope they enjoy themselves at big school.

We all enjoyed a short visit to Bawdeswell church on Thursday 12th November, with a special childrens service conducted by the Rev. Humphries. Many families attended and the playgroup children sang and played 'Music' very loudly.

This year on December 17th we shall be having our christmas party in the mobile and of course we shall be hoping for a visit from Santa Claus. This will be the last day of our term and we shall be returning in the New Year on Monday 11th January.

A quiz night has been arranged for Friday 11th December at the Silver Jubilee, Foxley. Tickets are available at £2=50 meal included. For more details ring Wendy on Bawdes 320

Finally may we all, at playgroup wish everyone a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and thank you all for your continued support.

Bonfire Evening

Friday night was a great succes and thankfully the weather was kind to us. I would like to say how nice it was to see so many of the villagers at a gathering at one time. We would like to thank all those who helped put the evening together, the food and drink servers, and not forgetting Mr. David Gurney for the use of his field. The sum of £320.00 was raised for the village hall funds.

Apology

Last months issue of The Reeves Tale sadly contained a misprint. The sum raised at the Bawdeswell Hall Plant Sale was £2,900 and sadly not £32,900 as stated.

Funds raised at such functions helps the British Red Cross Society provide their many services. In Norfolk it costs over £1,500 every day. Some of this is regained by a straight contract of Red Cross Services to the Local Authorities, where they cannot provide the service themselves; such as the Home from Hospital service, but a large amount has to be raised every year from the general public.

Editorial Note

I would like to wish everyone a Happy Christmas and ask for articles for the February issue to be in by January 13th.

Jane Thompson

Thank You

Thankyou to Rene, John, Jill and Martin for their donations of £10 to The Reeves Tale and £10 to the Village Hall.

BAWDESWELL CHURCH CLEANING

On behalf of all who use or just visit our church many thanks to Edna and her helpers also Pearl and Beryl who keep the brass in such good order. May we wish them all a very happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

Irene Ames

The Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal Bawdeswell

In this issue of the Reeves Tale one can only say thank you to those who collected House to House, to Bawdeswell School for their support and all those who gave so generously. The result of your efforts will not be known until the next issue of the Reeves Tale, when one hopes that all the boxes will have been collected. There was a generous gift of £20 for a wreath which the R.B.L. Lenwade Branch laid in our church on Sunday 8th November.
