SAFELY GATHERED IN -

Foxley have already, 15th September, celebrated their Harvest Festival. Report is on page 21 . Bawdeswell are planning a celebration at All Saints Church on Sunday 29th September at 10.30am. The church will be decorated with flowers and produce and we will be joining in thanks and praise in the traditional manner with songs and prayers.

It will be a special occasion for another reason. A farewell and presentation to our Rector Alan Cunnington and his wife Jean to mark Alan's retirement.

Please come along and join in and enjoy coffee and homemade biscuits afterwards.

Bawdeswell, Foxley and Bylaugh will be joining forces to give Alan and Jean a memorable retirement present. If you have not been approached already and would like to contribute, please make your donation at Bawdeswell Store, or to Robin Taylor, by Thursday 26th September. Any cheques should be made out to R. Taylor (ref. AC Presentation). Thank you.

Please join us at the Bawdeswell Harvest Festival. Collection in aid of R.A.B.I. (Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institute).

PC JACKSON (retired)

Sorry we couldn't get round to say goodbye to so many of you. We have now gone to start our new life in France. We would like to say our au revoir to all our friends and neighbours in Bawdeswell and Foxley. We are taking with us lots of fond memories and leave you with our very best wishes.

The STEPHEN CARL WILLIAMSON Football Trophy 2002

Three in a row for Reepham Town FC, winners again this year.

A large number of people came to all four football matches and although the number at the presentation was very disappointing, we still managed a record £409.08.

Many thanks to all who donated prizes and money, also bought and sold raffle tickets.

Phil Williamson

Book Club

Do you enjoy reading? A few of us would like to set up a reading group. This would provide an opportunity to learn about new authors and make some new friends.

The first meeting is set for Wednesday 16th October at 7.30 in The Old Workhouse Bar, by kind permission of Matt.

Whatever your taste in books, do come along. We look forward to seeing you.

Kath Miners

Bawdeswell Flower Festival

I should like to thank everyone who helped with the Flower Festival and also those who supported us, making it a very successful event. Not least a very big thank you to Robin Taylor, who did so much in the background. (It is embarrassing for me to include this last sentence. I must thank Bridget, Beryl and Sandi who helped me, and you too Sue - Ed.)

Kathy Florence Rutland - died on 28th August at the N & N University Hospital, aged 91. She came from a family of eight children, originally from Foulsham but spent the last 19 years at Folland Court in Bawdeswell. The service was at St Faiths Crematorium near Norwich.

Pearl Blake's funeral took place on Tuesday 3rd September at All Saints Church in Bawdeswell and was attended by a large family group led by her granddaughter, and about 60 friends and parishioners. After the service there was a gathering at the Village Hall. Pearl had lived in a flat at The Old Bell Inn for some years and was well known in the village for her support of things local. She died after a short illness aged 85 and was cremated at St Faiths Crematorium. She will be missed. Ed.

The speaker at our July meeting, Mrs Rosemarie Jacob, gave a most interesting talk on "The experiences of a Corset Consultant". Known by several of her clients as "The Corset Woman", she spoke about some amusing, some sad and one or two rather frightening encounters during her years as a Spirella trained Consultant. After reading the Minutes of the June meeting, Ruth highlighted some events on her latest "What's On". Names were taken for the August outing to see Ruddigore at the Little Theatre in Sheringham, and also for another visit to Caithness Crystal.

The prettiest button exhibit was won by Margaret Peachment, 2nd was June Edwards. The raffle was won by Elizabeth Lenton. The September meeting was on Monday 9th. Members had been looking forward to seeing Mrs Rosemary Morton bone a turkey, and although the 'turkey' turned out to be a chicken, we were in no way disappointed. Indeed, it was an extremely interesting and enlightening demonstration – although it remains to be seen how any members will get a sharp knife and experiment in the seclusion of their own kitchens. Thank you very much Rosemary, for sharing your expertise with us and we all enjoyed the generous slice from a previously boned chicken you prepared earlier.

All this reminded us of the WI Exhibition at Pensthorpe from 13th to 22nd September and names were taken for My Fair Lady at Norwich's Theatre Royal in January. The raffle – which this month was the boned chicken in its foil wrapper – was won by Colleen. The homemade sweets exhibit was won by Colleen, 2nd Reggie. Ruddigore at Sheringham had been very much enjoyed and it was agreed that the cast had put on a most entertaining show. The talk in October is on The Great Hospital, and as always, we welcome new members.

REEPHAM & DISTRICT ROTARY

It was with deep regret that Club members were told of the death of local businessman Pat Pennington. Pat was one of the instigators forming the Club back in 1969. He, together with the late Reverend Bert Alcock worked tirelessly to make sure the Club got up and running. He led the Club before its charter and it was only down to business and family pressures that he was unable to be our first President after charter. He deserved that honour but unfortunately it wasn't to be. The Club's sympathies go out to his family.

BAWDESWELL PARISH COUNCIL- EXTRACTS OF MEETING HELD ON MONDAY 2nd SEPTEMBER 2002 at 7.30pm. in the village hall.

PRESENT: Councillors Battley(Chairman)Clarke,Hind, Farthing and Smith. Mr. J. Mallen(DC) . 6 Parishioners.

APOLOGIES: Councillor Cunliffe. Mrs. I. Floering Blackman.

MINUTES OF LAST MEETING: Agreed and signed.

P.C. Vacancy - Mr. James Lilwall has been co-opted to serve as a Parish Councillor.

P.C. Responsibility for Village Hall - Clerk been in contact with Veronica Savage,Norfolk Assoc. of Village Halls and Mr. Stuart Chaplin, NCAPTC asking their advice and help. Clerk to find original legal document regarding ownership of Hall. Matter held pending October meeting.

Planning:

- 2 Bell Close - extension to dwelling - no objections.
- The Old Rectory, Foxley Road - erection of cottage and garage - Objection is that it is too near the road and outside the building envelope.
- The Old Workhouse Bar,The Street - variation of condition 5 to use designated car port for outside drinking area. (Both the Chairman and Mr. Lilwall declared an interest and signed the "Declaration of Interest Book"). The PC strongly objected to this as it was felt that the new drinking area would mean more cars being parked outside thus increasing congestion in the Street which is on the main bus route and causing problems to neighbours. Complaints have also been received about the noise level in the evenings. The PC felt that this extension to the bar would not be suitable in the middle of a built up area.
- The Paddock , Reepham Road - Debbie Wragg, Enforcement Officer confirms that none of the conditions have yet been met and it is thought the site is up for sale. The new owners will still have to comply with all conditions laid down in PP. PC will be kept informed.

PP granted to :

BAWDESWELL & DISTRICT FRIENDLY CLUB

We meet on the first Thursday of every month in the Village Hall 2 - 4pm

FOXLEY SOCIAL CLUB - Minutes of 1st AGM held at the Village Hall on Wed. 7th August 2002 at 2pm.

Present: June (Bawdeswell Friendly Club), Carol Mears, Jenny Burlingham, Margaret Driver, John Driver, Maisie Wells, Betty Slattery, Joy Webster, Robert Dewing, Gladys Dewing, Sheila Barrett, Dennis Barrett, Bill Potter, Ruth Whitmore, Gordon Whitmore.

In the absence of a Chairperson, Sheila Barrett chaired the meeting.

Apologies for absence: Pat Edwards and Maisie Parfitt.

Election of Officers: Sheila Barrett asked members for nominations for the committee. There were none. The Chairperson confirmed that the 'Acting Committee' was prepared to serve the following roles:

ChairpersonSheila Barrett

Treasurer.....Gladys Dewing

Secretary.....Ruth Whitmore

Social secretary.....John Driver

The above were elected by a unanimous show of hands.

Secretary's Report.

It was confirmed that the Club held its first meeting on 16th May 2001. Seventeen organised events plus the usual tea and chat afternoons have taken place. There have been speakers on a variety of subjects, and trips to places of interest. Currently, the secretary is requesting numbers for the Theatre Royal's "Jack & the Beanstalk" by the 20th August, and the Thursford Christmas Show by 8th September.

Members were asked to take turns in organising the fortnightly catering and the 'Bring & Buy' sale.

A successful spin-off from the Social Club is the Bowls Club. It meets every Monday evening, and is attended by eighteen or so members, with fresh faces arriving soon.

Treasurer's Report.

Gladys Dewing explained the attached accounts and confirmed a balance of £571.91 which is split as follows: Social Club £465.76, Bowls Club £106.15.

It was agreed that the Bowls Club and the Social Club should each pay the Village Hall a fee of £5.00 each time the hall is used. Joy Webster asked what was intended for the funds held, feeling it should be used for the good of the members. It was agreed that providing there was always sufficient money to meet Social Club commitments, then the members would be consulted as to how they wished the residue to be used.

It was proposed and agreed that a £1.00 fee should be charged at normal meetings, and a £2.00 fee when speakers attended. A discussion took place regarding whether a yearly membership fee should be introduced, but this was agreed to be left to further discussion between Committee and members at a later date.

Bowls Club Report.

Carole Mears read the Bowls report. It was confirmed that an event will be held once the bowling competitions are completed, to present prizes to the winning members. Pete Mendham of the East Anglia Air Ambulance may be asked to do the honours.

FOXLEY RESIDENTS.....HELP!

By now all Foxley residents should have received the black bins from the Council for recycling paper, tins, cartons and plastics etc. The Village Hall Committee would like to bring to your attention the fact that the waste paper bank that is situated on the parking area in front of the hall does in fact earn a revenue every time it is filled. If the new bins are used for wastepaper, the hall bank is likely to be neglected and might be taken away. Any revenue for your village hall is important. So please continue to put your newspapers in the hall paper bank. Thank you everyone.

A VILLAGE APPRAISAL SCHEME FOR FOXLEY

The Rural Community Council has set up a scheme whereby villagers can voice their concerns and needs for their particular area. Essentially, a 'Village Appraisal' is a comprehensive survey carried out by the residents for the residents.

It gives every resident the chance to express their personal or family concerns relating to the community, and more importantly any ideas or requirements to help the community move forward.

Within the next few weeks a questionnaire will be given to every household in Foxley. When the questionnaire has been completed, it can be handed in at a point to be notified, and all the concerns and requirements will be carefully analysed and valued on their merits by the Village Appraisal Committee; and then a report will be produced. A meeting will then be held where residents can discuss the report, and have a final say on what should be taken on as projects or plans for the community as a whole.

WE CLEAN SEVEN DAYS A WEEK!

FOXLEY OPEN GARDENS DAY

Final Report & Summing up by Dennis Barrett

Although the figures show us that we had some 600 less visitors than last year, the actual money collected was several hundred pounds more than last year. Result: £3,799 divided equally between the Church Wall Fund, the Village Hall, and the East Anglia Air Ambulance.

This was a very satisfying result for all the months of preparation that had been needed to get the fifteen gardens ready for visitors. Then there was of course, the infrastructure that is necessary for such an event. Land was generously offered by the Greentree, Davis, Parfitt, and Harvey families to be utilised as car parks; Ruth and Bill Waller organised the Dereham Scout Troop, a very efficient and personable group of lads, to monitor and steward the incoming cars. Transport was arranged by Ivan Powley to collect marquees, gazebos, trestle tables etc. and the 'usual suspects' were rounded up to fetch, carry and erect. And what would a village event be without food and drink! Here, when it comes to catering, the Foxley ladies came into their own: Maisie Parfitt with her Beefburger Bar, and the last but not least Sheila Barrett with all her helpers in the Village Hall Cafeteria

Scattered around the village were many other attractions, designed to amuse and interest, but not forgetting the main task of raising money for charity. There were stalls with their cakes, their bric-a-brac, and the immensely popular pots of cuttings. Mary Fletcher turned part of her garden into a mini-market selling the more mature plant, aided and abetted by Howard and Margaret Lupton with their display of Lewisa, whilst John Fletcher had the lawn spread with an exhibition of Stationary Working Steam Engines. To see the Dewings' immaculate garden, one had to first run the gauntlet of their Tombola stall. In the Village Hall, lending their considerable talents to the cause, were local artist Angela Wells, photographer George Buckle, Master Baker Norman Olley, and a representative for the Norfolk Wildlife Trust.

As visitors wound their way through the village from one garden to the next, the warm summer afternoon breeze carried to them the strains of music from Foxley's resident musicians Sam, Ian and Oli. As an incentive to rest one's eyes from the brightness and bustle of the day, the Church offered a diversion of shady coolness coupled with a study of outstandingly beautifully arranged flowers, the theme being "Service to Others": a work by the talented Church Flower Ladies.

When the last visitor had left, after very many compliments and praises for the very high standard of the gardens, all the helpers made their way to the Greentrees' garden, and met up to take some well earned refreshment; and over a cup of tea or a glass of wine tales of the day were recounted. Although everyone was feeling justifiably tired, we all felt we had had a very worthwhile day. Ruth Whitmore, who as Chair of the Open Gardens Day Committee is the organiser par excellence, closed the day with a speech of thanks to all her helpers, which, as she pointed out, was most of the village. It certainly was quite heart-warming to realise how many people had given up their rest day to lend a hand. But Foxley is that kind of village....

FOXLEY OPEN GARDENS DAY - THE ANALYSIS

A Brain Storming Meeting was held in the Village Hall on the 3rd July, with an invitation to villagers to come along to express any criticism, or to help generate any new ideas. This was attended by some 30 villagers, which was both pleasing and encouraging for future events. There were lively discussions, and plenty of suggestions and ideas put forward; certainly enough to keep the committee occupied in thought for the coming months.

It was decided to hold next year's event on Sunday 8th June (Father's Day is on the 15th June!). The general consensus of opinion was that events need to be fresh and innovative to continue the interest of the visitors, and just as importantly to try to maintain an edge over the stiff competition around at this time of the year. All agreed though that Foxley Open Gardens Day is going to remain a yearly event.

There is an open invitation from the Chair, to anyone who would like to help with such tasks as PR, printing, advertising and so forth. They would be very welcome. Incidentally, if anyone did not make the meeting, for whatever reason, but has suggestions that they feel could be put to good use for the next year, the committee would like to hear from you. And last but not least, to the villagers in general.... the Committee would like to thank you sincerely for your continuing moral and financial support.

ST THOMAS CHURCH, FOXLEY

Harvest Festival

Alan Cunnington preached his final sermon at Foxley on Sunday 15th September. All that we need in this life, he said, comes from God, and we in turn must respond with equal generosity and trust.

St Thomas' was as usual beautifully decorated and the congregation had indeed been generous with God's gifts, as everywhere amongst the flowers were fruit and vegetables, which will be donated to Reepham Day Centre.

At the end of the service John Harvey, churchwarden, paid tribute to the splendid example of a life dedicated to the service of our Lord which Alan, supported by his wife Jean had given us. Providing for the spiritual needs of the parishes had been a demanding task to which the Cunningtons had responded with total commitment. Mr Harvey wished them a happy and contented retirement. Reciprocating, Alan spoke of the friendship he and Jean had experienced and thanked the regular members of the congregation for their help and support.

A sociable ½ hour followed with wine and 'nibbles', during which a toast was drunk to Alan and Jean.

Diana Harvey

New Kneelers

Thank you to the 14 people from Foxley, Bawdeswell and Billingford who have offered to work a tapestry kneeler for St Thomas'. We do appreciate this response which will give the project a good start. We are at the planning stage looking at designs and colours appropriate for the church. We hope to have these plans ready in the near future.

There may be some of you reading this who are unable to work a kneeler yourself, but would like to be involved by contributing towards the cost. This could be in memory of a family member or friend. We plan to have a permanent label on each one, recording the names of the person who worked it, the donor and the one to whom it has been dedicated.

For further information please contact Diana Harvey (01362) 688650 or Monica Hatch (01362) 688316.

Illustrated Talk

Peter Bradbury will be giving an Illustrated Talk on local village history, architecture and floral arrangements at St Thomas', and also memories of the Open Gardens days. The time and venue will be 22nd November at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. Try and not miss it!

NEW INITIATIVES FROM BAWDESWELL CHURCH

Striving to serve the local community better...

DO YOU -

SUPPORT THE CHURCH BUT DON'T COME TO THE SERVICES?

HAVE -

TOO MANY OTHER THINGS TO DO ON A SUNDAY.

NEED A LONG LIE ONCE IN A WEEK.

DON'T WANT TO COMMIT YOURSELF.

DON'T LIKE THE DOGMA IN THE SERVICES.

FEEL EMBARRASSED IF YOU RARELY SHOW UP.

We are introducing a completely new kind of service at 6pm once a month, on the 2nd Sunday of each month – but Sunday 20th October to get us started.

It has a starting title Word & Praise and will be very straightforward – thanks, prayers for the world, our families and our friends – and some cheerful and tuneful hymns. There will be no activities and no preaching, keeping the length down to under an hour. It is hoped it will appeal to a wide age group.

SALVE YOUR CONSCIENCE AND TRY OUT THIS NEW SERVICE !
IT'S ONLY ONCE A MONTH, AND YOU DON'T HAVE TO COMMIT YOURSELF IN ANY WAY. HONEST!

Friends of Bawdeswell Church

Plans are also afoot to form a Friends of Bawdeswell Church Group to help support the church in running fund-raising events each year towards its Fabric Fund. It is hoped that this would enlist help from the number of well-wishers who are always very supportive but do not necessarily choose to attend our services regularly. More details to follow at a later date.

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear friends,

God is watching! Give him a good show!

This will be the last time I scratch my head to find something to say in my letter to you that might just connect with the thoughts of our many readers!

I actually resign on the last day of September from my post as Rector, having then completed thirty-two years in full-time parochial ministry - most of it in Norfolk. My wife Jean and I will have completed just over six years in the Rectory here in Lyng, relating as best we may to the parishioners of the six villages that make up our United Benefice.

In fact my letter has appeared regularly in the Hill and Vale magazine for Lyng, Sparham, Elsing, and Bylaugh, and usually at the same time in the Reeves Tale, which covers Bawdeswell and Foxley.

We are all moving through life on 'single tickets' - no-one has a 'return' - so we all have just 'one shot' to make our lives something worth offering to our heavenly Father at the end of the day. Most of us put off most decisions to more 'convenient' times - and so lose many God-given opportunities to make a difference for good in our little corner of life.

We want to thank you for the love and support shown to my wife and myself - we have had the great privilege of touching a great number of individual personal lives, and we are grateful to our living, loving, and liberating Lord, Jesus Christ. Wherever you find yourself in life's intricate 'web', try to make every day count - in the many opportunities our heavenly Father continues to grant to us.

Yours very sincerely,

Alan Cunniff
